A Passion for Jesus – A Love for Others

Sunday 26th July 2026 with Communion

Today's Speaker: Mike Kerry

Leading Worship: Tom & Rosemary Batts

The Supremacy of Christ: Colossians 1:15-23

We give everyone a warm welcome to our service this morning.

Please join us for refreshments downstairs after the service.

Members of the Prayer Team are available after each service if you would like prayer.

My urologist called on Wednesday to say both kidneys were fine for now and that the growths on both had not grown much. They will monitor me in a year's time. When diagnostics saw me, they implied it would be ok. The miracle for me, is that before hearing the result, I was convinced it was all going to be fine. I am grateful for the prayers that have carried me. There is a peace that surpasses all understanding prior to hearing, beyond all results confirming so. Jesus is my Great Physician. Maria Angelakis

PRAYER FOCUS:

Please pray for Held as they commence their summer program from the 30th July. Remember them as they meet in outside venues that they may be a witness to others.

Please pray for Alex and Naomi as they lead a group of young people to West Watch. Pray for safety and a blessed time together.

Please remember those of our fellowship who are unwell and awaiting hospital visits.

FAMILY FOCUS:

Tom & Rosemary Batts, Martin, Stephanie & Leah Beal, Nigel Bentley, Jim & Barbara Billington, Peter & Zita Biship, Gordon & Julia Booth, Gillian Buchanan, Beth Burgess, John Butler.

Our Duty Leadership team member today is Roger Case

Can you help with driving 3 people who have partial visual impairment to Herstmonceux Village Hall every Tuesday for an Art & Craft activity 10 - 12pm. It is in term time only from September.

Ideally the driver would stay for the entire time to cover travel both ways.

The organiser will carry out DBS checks.

For more information, please contact
Sandy Richards on 01323 895540.

Thank you.

West Watch

SBC Summer Youth Trip – West Watch
