Listening to God (5) Whatever the Circumstances - Psalm 23

We give everyone a warm welcome to our service this morning.

Please remember to make sure your mobile phones are off or on silent.

Please join us for refreshments downstairs after the service.

Members of the Prayer Team are available after each service if you would like prayer.

A testimony to share

Dear

You were the first welcoming person I met, when I started swimming again at Seaford Pool. You have shown me nothing but friendship, kindness, love and compassion and a true concern for my mum's welfare and journey to heaven.

I can't thank you enough. You are truly one of God's angels. I will miss you and the joy you bring. All my love Kim xxx

I received this precious card last week from Kim, as she returns home to Kent.

She arrived at the pool a few months ago in the summer to help care for her terminal mum. When her mum passed, I was prompted by the Holy Spirit to send her a card.

She thanked me four times profusely on the day and then proceeded to tell all the ladies in the changing room about the card. All I did was writing a simple card, which didn't take me long to do. I prayed over it, trusting God would honour a simple act of kindness.

His response was more than I could ever have imagined. God uses us in our every day lives while doing every day things to bless people. I received far more than I gave.

He prepares situations for us to follow in His footsteps. Thank you Jesus

Prayer Focus :

Please continue to pray for those who are unwell.

Please pray for the vacancy for the bookkeeping position that the right person will be appointed to assist the treasurer in this important part of the church life.

Please pray for the Leadership and Elders as they lead us through this time of interregnum. May they have a clear understanding of the Lord's plans for our church.
